WORLD-PEACE.

It is evident from the addresses before the International Peace Congress, recently convened in San Francisco, that the causes of war are clearly seen not only by leaders of thought in Christian nations, but by the Chinese. Dr. Ng Poon Chew went right to the core of the subject in a single sentence. He said, "There will be wars and more wars just so long as there are two codes of laws and two standards of morality, one governing nations, the other individuals."

It is evident that this Chinese editor does not accept the doctrine so strenuously taught by some, that the state is a thing apart from the people; that its decrees are infallible; and that whatever the state does is right, if only it has the power to enforce its desires. The doctor does not believe that might makes right. His recognition that there is but one law for both nation and individual impliedly exalts law above nations, and subjects the strong to the same law that should govern the weak. He asserts that Christian nations have shattered China's ideals of peace in parcelling among them lands belonging to them, and that to protect her possessions China was preparing for war. One law should apply alike to all the nations of the earth, be they great or little. It is a reproach upon Christian nations that they have not kept the law of their religion, and have given any reason for saying, as Dr. Chew did, that "China has learned her bitter lesson and now is proceeding to abandon its concept that justice is the foundation of the State, and to take up the practice of brute force." Is not this Christianity brought to judgement? Is there not evidence in this that, as the Writings state, Christians live worse lives than the Gentiles do?

The reason why Christianity has had so little power in the world is because Christian nations have not lived it. So gross and unjust have the acts of Christians and Christian nation been that Christianity has not only failed to bring forth its fruits among the Gentiles, but Gentiles have contracted distrust and disregard for both Christians and the religion for which they profess to stand. "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."—Ex.

CHEER UP!

These are dark days for the world. The shadow of the war is heavier than ever on all hearts, whatever their sympathies. There is little exultation now even in victories, for we know at what a price of blood and pain every victory is won.

But there are many things besides war in the world. Except for our active imaginations, most of us would feel life running on pretty much as usual. There is the same sunshine, the same life-giving air, the same autumn colors in the woods, the same joy in bountiful harvests. There is the same quiet satisfaction of soul that has always come with the fall season, whether in country or city.

Here, in our American isolation, we can live out our lives in spite of wars and rumors of wars. There is need, to be sure, of taking thought for the future, preparing against the time when war may bring home to us the wretchedness that we knew half a century ago and that Europe knows today. But that is a matter of calm decision, not

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months."

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health.

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

We are today the most fortunate nation in the world. There is no reason why we cannot continue so. It is a good time for the nation to take to heart the philosophy that is preached so much today to individuals—the philosophy of confidence, of optimism, of positive thought.

It is right and proper that we should feel the woes of Europe and it is our duty to alleviate them all we can. But it is wrong to let those woes weigh on our spirits until we lose our own buoyancy and poise. It is better to regard the war as a doctor or a nurse regards sickness—as something to be cured, whose cure can be effected not through outbursts of sentimentalism, but through intelligent and cheerful service.

ODDITIES.

Ralph von Hacht, 23, at Milford, Conn., blind from birth in one eye, had his sight restored when surgeons successfully performed an operation for appendicitis. The appendix had been resting against one of the nerves which connects with the optic nerves.

Driving five dogs hitched to an Alaskan mail sled, Miss Estelle Mason, of Nome, Alaska, is completing a queer world's tour. She finished her journey at Cincinnati, having travelled 32,000 miles. If she arrives at San Francisco with two of her original dogs and the mail sled, she will receive $12,500.

Charles Frederick Fowles wrote in his will that if he and his wife died under circumstances that made it difficult to decide which died first, it was to be presumed that he preceded her. They went down on the Lusitania.

SAY "HELLO!"

When you see a friend in woe,
Walk right up and say, "Hello!"
Say, "Old Brother, how'd'ya do?"
How's the world a-usin' you?
Waltz right up, and don't be slow,
Laugh and shake and say "Hello!"
His clothes are poor—makes no show,
Never mind, just say "Hello!"
That home-spun shirt may conceal
A great strong heart, true as steel;
That old coat and shabby vest
Cuts no ice, but do your best
To make him happy here on earth
And to feel that he's of worth.
Don't you know that such a chap
Has every day his sure mishap?
Don't let him think that the earth
Was dead against him since his birth.

Crack his shell, draw him out;
Don't let him whine, sulk or pout.
Make him tell you all the woes
Of his heart before he goes.
Don't tell him he's a chump
But tell him to get up and hump;
Tell him not to be so slow,
But get around and say "Hello!"
"I'm alive, what can I do,
To help myself, as well as you?"
Do not wait until he's dead
To strew bouquets around his head.
Nice words spoken are out of place,
If not said before his face.
Make him see that you're his friend,
And will stay such to the end.
Yes, tell him now though he's rough:
"Why, old brother, you're just the stuff

This world needs to make it go;
Now brace up and cry "Hello!"
There are plenty such about,
That are worth the digging out.
In this way you surely can
Make him feel that he's a man.
He will always think of you
As his best friend, tried and true.
In the future you will know
What good it does to say "Hello!"

OUT FOR SHERIFF.

To the Voters of Cumberland County:—In this issue of the Chronicle appears my announcement for re-election to the office of Sheriff.

In this connection, I do not undertake to mislead or evade, but desire to state frankly that in the past I have made mistakes and that I have tried earnestly to overcome the weakness which has on one or two occasions been a source of sincere regret to me.

If I have succeeded and made good as an officer, I hope you will endorse my record by giving me your vote; if I have failed and you are of the opinion that there is another who will render to the people of this county better service, then, let that man have your vote.

Weigh the facts of the case carefully, and I shall be satisfied with your verdict rendered at the polls.

It is my intention to see each and every voter of the county, and if I fail in any case, it will be due to my inability and not to lack of appreciation of past efforts in my behalf.

G. W. Toney.

FOR TAX ASSESSOR.

To the Voters of Cumberland County:—Quite a number of my friends have asked me to make the race for Tax Assessor and I have thought the matter over and as I am fifty four years old and have never asked for an office in my life, I have decided to become a candidate for Assessor, subject to the action of the Republican primary or convention as may hereafter be decided upon.

I think I am competent to take care of the office and I only ask for one term. If elected, I calculate to do the work myself and I assure the people that I will do my whole duty, as I understand it. I need the office and will appreciate the favor very much, if elected.

Respectfully,
J. E. Patton.

COLDS NEED ATTENTION.

Internal throat and chest troubles produce inflammation, irritation, swelling or soreness and unless checked at once, are likely to lead to serious trouble. Caught in time Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey loosens the phlegm and destroys the germs which have settled in the throat or nose. It is soothing and healing. Pine is antiseptic; honey is soothing—both together possess excellent medicinal qualities for fighting cold germs. Insist on Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. 25c all Druggists. 1.
